

LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Paragraphs Which Tell of the Happenings of Local Moment in Greater St. Joseph

Anything Which Has Occurred Deserving of Local Notice Can Be Found in These Columns

A syndicate of horsemen are negotiating with John H. Van Brunt for a long lease of the driving park at Lake Contrary.

The school board this week redeemed $1,600 worth of school bonds, which would have matured in June.

Judge W. H. Haynes is at St. Joseph's Hospital, where he underwent a minor surgical operation Sunday.

Don Riley's Motor Inn. Storage and best repair department in city. Ladies' rest room and free check room in connection. Seventh and Julia.—Ad.

It cost M. M. Arbuckle of Council Bluffs $10 in police court Monday for driving his car with bright lights Sunday.

The street railway is making over all of the summer cars into mammoth closed cars. They will be fifty-four feet long, and be put in use on all rush days.

According to advices received this week, the St. Joseph base ball team will begin the season's training at Claremore, Oklahoma, March 10.

The pupils of the city schools are observing the present fifteen days in a health crusade.

M. J. Downey for best Plumbing and Gas Fitting. 1902 Frederick Ave. Phone 116.—Adv.

Thomas and John P. Kegan, former saloon men, applied Wednesday to Commissioner Duncan for passports for Cuba, where they will visit as soon as the needed papers arrive.

Lieut.-Governor Wallace Crossley came up from Waverburg Wednesday, and in company with Senator Lysight called on many of the local democrats.

Fire caused by an overheated stove destroyed the two story dwelling of Dick Hayes, 2131 South Third street, early Wednesday morning. The loss was about $1800.

Melcherhoff Undertaking Co. presents character, service and consideration. Ninth and Felix. Phone M. 815.—Adv.

About ten cords of wood which remained at the welfare board's woodyard, was distributed to the poor yesterday.

Raymond Davis has sued Julius and Elsie Perske for $20,000 for false arrest on an alleged kidnapping case.

Mrs. Ruth Rood's Buick car was stolen Wednesday, but later recovered by the police.

Hal Y. Lemon, formerly of the Tootie-Lacy bank, was on Wednesday elected a vice president of the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City.

Farms for Sale—250 acres three miles from Graham, Mo. Well improved and priced right. Other good farms for sale. W. E. Freytag, Citizens Bank, Graham, Mo.—(Adv.)

L. M. Rector of Horton, formerly of this city, will address Central Labor Council Monday night.

Ten applicants to be made citizens of the United States were received by Commissioner Duncan Wednesday.

Lieut. Commander E. T. Oakes, U. S. N., was here Wednesday and inspected the naval recruiting station in the federal building.

Six-year-old Ernest Payne rode his coaster into a Union Line car at Fifth and Francis Wednesday, and succeeded in fracturing his right leg.

Benjamin Thomas Von Leutz, whose naturalization was revoked by Judge Van Valkenburgh, on Wednesday turned in his papers to deputy marshal Wheeler, who turned them over to Commissioner Duncan.

In the past nine years the Connett orchards near Willow Brook have sold apples that brought in $75,519.

Harry Bassett, a son of former county Judge Harry D. Bassett, was on Wednesday adjudged insane by the county court and sent to Hospital No. 2. The same entry was made in the case of Charles Noyes, except that he was deported to Oklahoma City instead of being sent to No. 2.

Everything you need for any kind of Painting, Wall paper, Chandler's Paint & Glass Co., 417 Edmond street.—Adv.

Forty-six medals were presented to as many school children at the Robidoux school auditorium Friday night for excellence in gardening.

S. R. Casper has gone to Chicago to accept an important position with Montgomery-Ward.

The Robidoux Hotel stockholders met Wednesday and elected Milton Tootle, Jr., J. G. Schneider, John D. Richardson, John L. McDonald, Graham G. Lacy, L. T. Golding, J. L. Davison, Herschel Bartlett and Dr. A. V. Banes directors, and declared a dividend of 5 per cent.

Rock Undertaking Co. Lady attendant, 316 Frederick avenue.—Adv.

The coal dealers say that the fuel situation is fairly easy, and will remain so.

Harry H. Smith was elected president of the Coal Dealers' Association Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the St. Joseph Auto Club will be held Jan. 26.

United States Senator Seiden P. Spencer and J. T. Tregoe, secretary-treasurer of the National Credit Men's Association, will be the speakers at the Credit Men's convention here Feb. 9.

Widow worth $50,000, age 35, anxious to marry honorable gentleman. Write Mrs. Warr, 2216 1/2 Temple St., Los Angeles, Cal.—(Adv.)

The St. Joseph Credit Men's Association will be behind a movement to put on a "pay up" campaign early this spring, at which time it is hoped to induce all who owe the merchants to settle.

The $250,000 addition to St. Joseph's Hospital will be started next month, and it is expected to have the structure complete the present year.

Elmina Sledge, a negro woman, was found at her home, 405 North Second street, Tuesday with a bullet wound in her right shoulder. She claimed that she did not know how it was inflicted.

Mr. R. E. Townsend, police commissioner who has been ill for two months, is able to be around again.

Ernest King of Bethany, Mo., attempted suicide by the carbolic acid route Tuesday at his room, 1316 South Ninth street. A stomach pump saved him.

For anything in the real estate line, see or write the Square Deal Real Estate Co., Savannah, Mo.—(Adv.)

W. W. Crossfield was arrested Tuesday, charged with conducting a disorderly house opposite the public library.

James Brown, box car thief who escaped from a deputy constable some weeks ago, was recaptured in Chicago, and brought back here this week.

E. A. Stanford, 2301 Sacramento, reported the loss of a $350 diamond Tuesday.

Eugene Silverman is minus his Virginia Dare wine and a cellar full of preserves, as the result of a sneak thief's visit to 1430 South 25th street Monday night.

L. J. Schatz hardware at 1810 Olive was burglarized Monday night, and $300 worth of hardware taken.

The equipment for the social disease clinic has arrived and active work will now begin.

James L. McMenamy, a deputy county clerk, went home Tuesday to find that smallpox had invaded his home. He was caught in the trouble and will be obliged to remain in quarantine until his family recovers.

Shriff Blair of Gallatin came here Tuesday and took Hugh Tarwater, slayer of "Uncle" Wes Robertson, to Gallatin for his preliminary. Hearing was waived and Tarwater was placed in the jail at that place, as there is no danger anticipated of lynch law being utilized.

Both John Conomow and his brother-in-law, John Lebar, have entered objections to the report of special master, Leon Guitier, who recommended a medium through which it was expected to settle the differences between the two.

Jameson Machine Co., engineers and machinists' supplies. Shattering, hangers, pulleys. 215 No. 2nd.—Adv.

Morris & Co. on Monday distributed $250,000 to the employees who participated in the profit sharing plan.

After granting about 30 divorces on Monday, the bottom of the divorce docket for the present term of court came in sight, and there will be but few more reached the present session.

G. M. Stanley, a Texas cowboy, lost $349 in bills at the Union station Monday. They are still missing.

Thomas W. Gaynor, a former well known wholesale dry goods dealer of this city and who was the husband of the composer, Jessie L. Gaynor, died in St. Louis Sunday, after a brief illness with pneumonia. He was 59 years of age and beside his wife leaves two daughters. He was very widely and favorably known.

Grover Sampson returned from Lake Geneva, Wis., this week, where he attended a sale of standard bred Poland-China swine. He purchased one sow for which he paid $3,700.

All of the interests with which the Swifts are connected here, held their annual meetings Monday. There were no changes in any of the directorates, except in the Stock Yards Bank—and they were minor.

All employees of Swift & Co. at the stock yards have been vaccinated, as a precaution against smallpox.

Lizzie King's place on Mesquite street was raided Saturday and again Sunday, and all inmates arrested.

The Price restaurant at 2374 South Sixth street was damaged by fire Sunday to the extent of about $1200.

A meeting of Russian Jews was held at the home of Boris Galsky, 504 South 5th street, Sunday. At that time it was decided to organize a club, its members to contribute $5 each per month, the proceeds to be used to rescue their relatives now in the Russian Ukraine.

The vaccination programme is now being carried out to the letter. Every school child in St. Joseph who has not had smallpox or been vaccinated will be barred from the public schools Monday.

A. Nevitt, Charles Cole, L. E. Hawkins and H. H. Niles were arrested Wednesday for traffic regulation violations and fined from $5 to $20 each in police court Thursday.

The luncheon and entertainment committee of the Commerce Club will at a dinner at the Leader tea rooms Monday lay out the programme for the present year.

It cost Nic Moutiegos, a South Sixth street butcher $19 in police court Thursday for offering unwholesome meat.

T. F. Orpene was caught in the machinery at the Hammond plant Thursday and considerably bruised.

Edna M. Ken of Des Moines filed suit here Thursday for $100,000 damages against the Chicago Great Western on account of the Wyeth disaster.

The trustees of the Wesley Home social settlement have purchased a tract of land on Cherokee street and Pryor avenue, costing $10,000, on which they will erect a new home in the near future to cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $50,000.

Townsend, Wyatt & Wall Co.

First of All—Reliability

Townsend, Wyatt & Wall Co.

JANUARY---THE MONTH OF VALUES!

Great January White Sales

Now in Progress!

Giving you in a concrete way the advantages of lower prices obtained months ago through the foresighted buying of our alert organization.

White Undermuslins

Children's Undermuslins

Silk and Satin Undergarments

Italian Silk Underwear

French and Philippine Undermuslins

Corsets and Brassieres

The New 1920 White Goods

Laces and Embroideries

The New 1920 White Silks and Satins

White Gloves

White Silk Hosiery

Extra Size Undermuslins

Our Great January Clearing Sales

Still in Progress!

Suits Coats
Dresses
Blouses Furs

Townsend, Wyatt & Wall Co.

Member Retail Merchants' Association. Rail and Auto Fares Rebated.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO

Rettig's Cafeteria and Coffee Shop

SEVENTH AND EDMOND STS. ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Two Floors—Self Service—Cozy, Homelike Surroundings

Open Daily, Except Sundays, From 7 a. m. to 7:30 p. m.

WONDERFUL FOOD AT SENSIBLE PRICES.
UNSURPASSABLE COFFEE AND CHOCOLATE

Our Cafeteria Breakfasts Have Proven a Big Success.

Everything Fresh and Hot From the Steamtable

DELICIOUS WAFFLES, HOT CAKES
AND EGG DISHES PREPARED TO ORDER AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE.

QUICK SERVICE